

2022 IWWF Asian Waterski & Wakesports Championships

Bulletin 1

The Korea Waterski & Wakesports Association will host the 2022 IWWF Asian Waterski & Wakesports Championships in Chuncheon, South Korea from 8th to 13th August 2022.

The official arrival dates are from 7th to 9th August 2022 and departure date is 14th August 2022. Teams are kindly requested to schedule their departures from 14th August 2022 onwards so they can attend the Team Overall Awards Presentation & Closing Ceremony Dinner on 13th August 2022.

Chuncheon is the capital city of Gangwon Province, South Korea. To the north, rugged Obongsan Mountain is home to the Buddhist Cheongpyeongsa Temple. It features a stone garden, an ancient, 3-story stone pagoda and the secluded Guseong Waterfall. The average temperature in August is between 19°C to 27°C.

Chuncheon hosted the 2009 IWWF World Wakeboard Championships, 2010 IWWF Waterski & Wakeboard World Cup and 2012 IWWF Asia & Oceania Championships.

IWWF Asia

2. Organizer

Korea Waterski & Wakesports Association

3. Entry Conditions & Administration

Only paid-up member federations of IWWF Asia are qualified to participate in the 2020 IWWF Asian Waterski & Wakesports Championships. All athletes must be entered by their respective Federations, including individual athletes.

a. IWWF's Event Management System (EMS)

IWWF's Event Management System (EMS) will be used for registration of all participants. Please ensure your federation/ association is enrolled in this system and your athletes are registered accordingly.

b. Intention to Enter: Each federation shall submit to the organizing committee and to the Secretary General of IWWF Asia, not later than 15th May 2022 its intent to compete. Any federation not meeting this requirement will not be allowed to compete unless they pay a penalty of US$5.00 per day to the organizer. Each federation shall submit to the organizing committee and to the Secretary General of IWWF Asia, not later than 1st July 2022, the names of the members of its team, the disciplines (Waterski, Wakeboard & Wakesurf), the events each will enter, the ranking of each skier/rider, as well as the names of the official reserves. Any federation not meeting this requirement may not be allowed to compete, or if so allowed at the discretion of the Chief Judges and the organizing committee until the federation pays a penalty of US$1.00 per day after the 1st July 2022 deadline to the organizer for each skier/rider not officially entered. If the official entry forms are not received 24 hours prior to the start of the first event, the federation's skiers' and riders' places in the draw, if allowed to participate, shall be determined by the respective Chief Judges without reference to their ranking.

All Asian Federations must submit the following entry forms as follows:

Form	Deadline
Intent to Enter (click here for form)	15 th May 2022
Official Entry Forms(click here for form)	1 st July 2022

c. Registraton of Federation in EMS

Further details will follow in Bulletin 2

d. IWWF License

Following an agreement by the IWWF World Congress held in 2019, the IWWF Executive Board approved the establishment of an IWWF Licence fee from 2021 where competitors in Waterski, Barefoot, Cableski Ranking List / Record Capability and 3 to 6 Stars Wakeboard competitions would be required to hold the IWWF Licence. Participants of the Wakesurf discipline do not require an IWWF License at this stage. It is requested that Federations ensure that all their Waterski and Wakeboard athletes hold a valid IWWF License before participating in the 2022 IWWF Asian Championships.

4. Rules - General

The competition will be conducted according to the IWWF Asian Technical Rules for Waterski, Wakeboard and Wakesurf.

The following serves to summarize tournament and wakeboard rules. If there are any contradictions, the 2022 Asian Waterski, Wakeboard and Wakesurf Rules will be used.
